For upcoming Just Views subjects and more about us, see: www.DuPagePeaceThroughJustice.org.

Both parking and admission are free to the public. No reservations required. Bring friends and family. College students and mature high school students are welcome to participate individually and in groups.

Just Views (JV) shows great films about the vital peace-and-justice issues of our time. These often are new and recent releases, sometimes classic productions; usually documentaries, sometimes dramas -- received in DVD or VCR format and projected on the big screen. (Especially if you missed your meal, you may bring a snack for yourself).

After the viewing, stay if you can to share views on the subject from various vantages with citizens and invited resource persons. People of all levels of education and exposure to the topic attend -- from experts to novices with little or no knowledge of the subject being examined. 2007 marks Just Views' sixth year offering entertaining film-anchored public education experiences -- that go beyond what commercial television and the movie theatres have provided.

Each night is a stimulating, informal, stand-alone experience. Anyone is welcome to suggest films, invite resource persons, and help to facilitate discussions. Our Just Views Program Director is sociologist Stephanie Hughes Ph.D. 630 / 420-4233 .

Mark your calendar ahead for each second Friday night at 7:20 pm and come as often as you can. These are enjoyable and economical nights out. Come alone, with family, friends, or a date. We're eager to have you involved whenever possible.

Please copy this notice and post copies wherever you can, including grocery stores, coffee houses, etc. Pass it along to others who may be interested!
